

Web Updates

The National Elk Refuge will regularly post all hunting updates on the Refuge’s web site at <http://www.fws.gov/nationalelkrefuge/NERHuntingRegs.htm>, including information on the permit application process, alternate permits, drawing times and dates, etc. Please check the web site for updates throughout the season.

Hunt Reports

A blank hunt report for the National Elk Refuge will be provided with the license. Your hunt information is critical to the Refuge’s hunting program. Please return the hunt report to one of the locations listed on the document.

Additional Information

All persons hunting in the south unit must be 18 years of age or older. No specific youth hunt will be designated for the south unit.

Permit holders with two valid Wyoming elk hunting licenses may use and fill both licenses while hunting on the Refuge. Hunters attempting to fill two valid licenses during the same hunt period do not need to apply for two Refuge permits.

The Wyoming Game & Fish Department will be conducting Chronic Wasting Disease (CWD) surveillance again this season. Results from samples submitted by hunters can be tracked on-line. Contact patrol officers for further information.

General Information

Elk herd size management is an important objective of National Elk Refuge biologists. Hunting helps to serve this objective and provide wildlife-dependent recreation to hunters.

Hunting of antlerless elk on the south unit of the National Elk Refuge with limited range weapons is permitted from October 9 through December 12, 2010, unless the season for Special Permit Area 77 (which includes the Refuge) closes earlier.

Limited range weapons include muzzle-loading rifles and archery equipment as defined by the Wyoming Game & Fish Department, or shotguns with slugs. Using rifles that shoot black powder cartridges is prohibited.

Nine hunt periods will be available to hunters. Hunt periods are one week long, with the exception of Period #2 which includes two extra days:

- Period #1: October 9 – 15
- Period #2: October 16 – 24
- Period #3: October 25 – 31
- Period #4: November 1 – 7
- Period #5: November 8 – 14
- Period #6: November 15 – 21
- Period #7: November 22 – 28
- Period #8: November 29 – December 5
- Period #9: December 6 – 12

“Antlerless Only” permits are the only permits available for the south unit hunt.

Information and Regulations

Application Information

A Refuge hunting permit specific for the south unit is required.

To apply for an elk hunting permit to hunt on the National Elk Refuge, hunters must complete an application on-line (see “On-line Permit Application”) between August 10 – September 21, initially applying for only one hunt period per hunt unit. Persons with a south unit hunt permit are not eligible for a north unit hunt permit for the same hunt period and should not apply. The results of the computerized random draw will be posted on the application web site on September 28.

On September 28, the on-line system will continue to be active to allow access to any permits that were not issued during the initial random draw. Any unissued (leftover) permits will be available on a first-come, first-served basis. Persons who were successful for one hunt period during the September 28 drawing may reapply for a first-come, first-served leftover permit valid for another hunt period.

On-Line Permit Application

The application process for National Elk Refuge elk hunting permits is conducted in cooperation with the Wyoming Game & Fish Private Lands Public Wildlife Access program. Applications are available at <http://gf.state.wy.us/plpwhmprogram/frmHunterManagementHome.aspx>

Click on “Apply for, reprint, or correct an HMA permission slip” to begin the application process.

For a direct link to the web site, visit the National Elk Refuge’s web page at <http://www.fws.gov/nationalelkrefuge>, and click on “Apply for a National Elk Refuge Elk Hunting Permit.”

Alternate Permits

Alternate permits for the south unit elk hunt become immediately available after the season has begun. These permits help Refuge managers ensure that the harvest is adequate to achieve the optimum healthy herd size. Alternate permits for the south unit elk hunt will be available for each period of the hunt season. The number of south unit alternate permits available includes:

October	9 – 15:	20 alternates
October	16 – 24:	20 alternates
October	25 – 31:	20 alternates
November	1 – 7:	20 alternates
November	8 – 14:	20 alternates
November	15 – 21:	20 alternates
November	22 – 28:	20 alternates
November	29 – December 5:	20 alternates
December	6 – 12:	20 alternates

Alternate permits will be available on a first-come, first-served basis beginning at 9:00 am Mountain Time each Monday and Wednesday from October 11 through December 8. These permits will be issued through the same on-line system outlined above (see “On-Line Permit Application”).

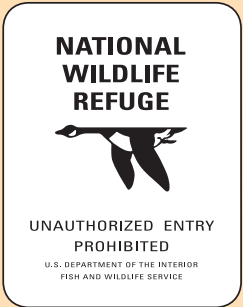

To disperse hunters over the hunt period, half of the alternate permits issued will be valid for Monday through Sunday of the respective week, and the remaining half will be valid for Wednesday through Sunday of the same week.

Individuals who were already successful in obtaining a permit for another hunt period may still apply for an alternate permit.

Alternate permits are usually distributed quickly, often within minutes of the 9:00 am time they become available. If the National Elk Refuge is not listed on the dropdown menu on the application web site, all permits have been issued for that hunt period.
